The flea market will be open on Friday and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and on Sunday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The flea market halls are guarded at night. Goods can be brought to the flea market via especially signposted entrances. The product range must be restricted to used goods from the areas of amateur and CB radio, electronics, computers and accessories. Any deviations from this will be penalised with immediate exclusion from the flea market without reimbursement of costs. In this case, the exhibitor will also be requested to leave the grounds immediately.

2 ADDITIONAL STRUCTURAL ITEMS / TECHNICAL EQUIPMENT

Tables (2 m x 0.6 m) will be set up. Vendors may not bring their own additional structural items or tables. The regulations specified by the building authorities must be observed, for example you don't have to take paper to cover up the tables. If a flea market participant requires a power source, this must be requested. The participant must bring his own extension cables, as needed. Power connection and consumption are billed at a flat rate of € 65.00 (for registrations made by 05/31/2023), regardless of the actual duration of use. Applications received after 05/31/2023 or on site will be charged € 75.00 per connection.

3 VENDORS - EXCLUSIVELY SECOND-HAND GOODS

These are private individuals who exclusively sell second-hand goods and do not sell them commercially or as part of a self-employed professional activity. For the duration of the fair they shall pay € 50.00 per table (a maximum of 4 tables may be hired), this includes one flea market exhibitor pass for each stand reservation. A breach of these conditions shall lead, without any reimbursement of costs, to immediate barring from the flea market. In addition, the exhibitor must in this case leave the site immediately. If it should turn out that the vendor is trading commercially, then the vendor shall be subsequently billed for the stand fee according to the prices for commercial vendors. Prior registration is required and is possible as long as space is available, but until 05/31/2023 at the latest. Admission to the flea market shall be confirmed in writing. Any person involved in selling must be in possession of a flea market exhibitor pass.
